PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION:

This is a nice vernacular stone house. Rising two stories, it is a three bay structure 30 x 40 in an L-shaped plan. The roof of the core is end gabled with asphalt shingles. The core is an 18 x 30 building with interior end chimneys at the gable ends. Windows on the core have shutters; the middle bay on the first floor encompasses both a window and the door. On the rear of this building is a two-story frame addition that sits on a perpendicular axis. It has a gabled roof and is clad in German beveled siding. A small shed roofed addition is also located on the left side of the house. It is a one story unit with German beveled siding.

Classification: Because of the altered state of the house, it is a Class II resource.
